

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

FORREST GRAY,

Plaintiff,

v.

CASSIE,

Defendants.

Case No. 2:22-cv-0099-JDP (PC)

ORDER

On March 12, 2024, the court granted defendant's motion to modify the scheduling order and ordered that any motion for summary judgment be filed thirty days after the settlement conference. The settlement conference was originally scheduled for June 13, 2024, but due to scheduling conflicts, the settlement conference did not occur until October 9, 2024. See ECF Nos. 47 & 57. In light of this delay, the court will grant the parties thirty days from the date of this order to file dispositive motions. Should the parties choose not to, this matter will be set for trial.¹

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties have thirty days from the date of this order to file dispositive motions.
